

Following a highly successful introduction into the world of charity-oriented cruises, Morris Murdock Travel is proud to announce their year-long campaign titled "Cruise for a Cure" that is geared toward raising funds for breast cancer research.

In conjunction with Carnival Cruise Lines "On Deck for the Cure" breast cancer fundraising initiative, Morris Murdock Travel invites all clients who participate in a 7-night or longer cruise to donate $10 towards the Susan G. Komen for the Cure movement. Carnival has a goal of generating $1 million toward breast cancer research, education, screening, and treatment.

Four- and five-day voyages aboard the Carnival Elation from San Diego are included as well.

Carnival's program will encompass 14 ships and participants are encouraged to take part in a one-kilometer walk around the ships' jogging tracks while wearing custom designed T-shirts and wristbands included with their donations
